

Amy's Garden

Read the following sentences about Amy and her garden. When you find a noun, circle it with your pencil. Remember that a noun is a person, a place, or a thing.

Amy loves to work in the garden.

The garden is located behind the clothesline in Amy's backyard.

Amy grows squash, tomatoes, green beans and corn in the garden.

Amy planted watermelon seeds, but they did not grow very well.

The soil in the garden becomes very dry and needs to be watered every day.

After unwinding the garden hose, Amy turns on the spigot. Then she waters the plants until they are soaked!

Each day, Amy's family eats the wonderful vegetables from their garden. They love to eat their tasty, homegrown vegetables.

Amy's favorite dish is freshly steamed corn on the cob, which comes straight from her garden!

